DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 16 and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claim 16 calls for "said first and second signals are said first and second output signals", lines 10-12, appears to be not supported by the disclosure since the first and second output signals are derived from the first and second signals and there is no feedback relationship between the first and second output signals and the first and second signals.

Claim 37 is rejected for the same reason set forth above.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-15 and 17-36 are allowed.
4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record fails to disclose and apparatus and method thereof comprising elements being configured as recited in claim. Specifically none of the prior art teaches or suggests, among other things, the limitations of the first, second and third phase mixers as required by claims 1, 8-9, 17, 27-28, 35 and 36.

Art Unit: 2816

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
